Trilogy: an opera company is working hard to insure the complete all inclusive celebration of our 20th Anniversary. We thank Newark for birthing our efforts. From the embracement of Dr. James Arthur Scott of Bethany Baptist Church, to our first major gift from, of then, Mayor Sharpe James, to the forming of our first committee by Councill Person Mildred Crump and consistent financial support, of first The African American Community to the help we now receive from all New Jersey. We are moved, touched, and inspired.

This Season before us, will include ROBESON by Adolphus Hailstork, Kenyatta by Trent Johnson, , Fannie Lou, Im sick and tired, Bumpy Johnson by Dwayne Fulton..and later followed by Gotterdaemerung in German by Richard Wagner.

The Agnes Varis Foundation calls Kevin Maynor “the Lincoln Kirsten of his time”. (founder of the New York City Ballet) Trilogy: an opera company, prepares for it’s 15th Anniversary Gala, and introduces a new Cablevision Show on Sunday evenings. Hollywood Icon, Danny Glover, continues his overwhelming support of our efforts, and secret admirers, continue to blast the good news of Trilogy: an opera company.
